

It's So Good It's Scary

NOW AVAILABLE!

Did you know that Halloween is the 2nd largest holiday in retail sales only behind Christmas? There's little competition out there for this, the original Hallowine, with vibrant packaging and a delicious spiced sweet apple wine from Door County.

TRY IT TODAY!

In 1665, Reginald W. Hallow brought his unique blend of fall harvest apples and mulled spices to ferment in the crisp Door County air. He dubbed his creation Hallowine... then mysteriously disappeared. Three hundred years later, Door Peninsula Winery honors Hallow's legacy conjuring up the distinctive autumn flavor of the region for a limited time.
